

PAT GILBERT VS. ED. WHITE

15 Rounds of Fast Milling

For The Intermountain Championship

At Armory Hall, TUESDAY, 8:30 p. m. Oct. 9th

BILLY JOHNSON AND DANNY O'BRIEN WILL CLASH IN A 6-ROUND CONTEST—O'BRIEN IS RECOGNIZED INTERMOUNTAIN 145-POUND CHAMP.

FACTS, NOT FANCIES

White has defeated most of the best boys on the coast and is recognized the best 133-lb boy from that section.

White received the popular verdict over Gilbert in a recent 6-round go in Salt Lake. This should be a better card than the last time. Salt Lakers are buying more ringside seats, and the tardy ones will have to sit in the bleachers.

STRANGLER LEWIS IN OGDEN ON HIS WAY EAST

"Strangler" Lewis, one of the leading wrestlers of the country, was in Ogden for a short time yesterday afternoon, en route from the Pacific coast to the east, where he will start his winter's campaign of conquests. He has been on the coast for the past month and a half, resting and keeping in condition by an occasional exhibition match with his trainers or with some California aspirant for wrestling honors. He has not been doing any strenuous work, however, saying he went out there for rest only.

"The Strangler" looked in the best of condition when seen by a Standard representative. He is still the same jovial heavyweight he was when he was in Ogden early last winter. He said he well remembered Ogden as a good town for the game, if the game was played on the square. Following some contests in the east, he expressed the wish that he might arrange for a go or two in Ogden this coming winter. He thinks he can put on a card that will make the Ogden followers of the game sit up and take notice. Lewis will wrestle Demetral in Detroit, Mich., Wednesday of next week, after which he will go to Canton, Ohio, to a bout with Jack Linow, two weeks later. No further matches have been definitely arranged, he stated.

Lewis is a heavyweight wrestler, weighing in at 230 pounds. He appears lighter than that, although the magnificent shoulders and deep chest mark him at once as a giant among men.

He spoke very highly of Pete Visser, the local light heavyweight, who is now in Davenport, Iowa, studying to become a chiropractor. He said Visser was a fine fellow and as square a man as he had ever seen in the game. He said he was glad Visser had not given up the wrestling game entirely. Apparently he has kept informed about the former Ogden fireman, as he knew he was engaging in occasional matches in and around the Iowa city.

"The Strangler" continued his journey eastward on the Union Pacific Overland Limited, after a short stay in Ogden.

MOVING PICTURES TO CHARGE MORE

That a raise in the general admission prices of the local moving picture theaters may be necessary in the near future, is the opinion of local theater managers who have received the following communication from Washington:

"The war tax is due to slice off a bit of the income of the motion picture industry, in spite of the favorable situation which for some time has existed here in so far as the films were concerned. The latest decision of the joint conference of the house and the senate is to the effect that a ticket levy of 10 per cent shall be placed upon all motion pictures charging 10 cents or more for admission. Only the 5-cent houses are entirely exempt. An annual income from the film houses under this tax is now estimated to total about $67,000,000.

"The text of the amusement tax is not yet made public, but according to members of the conference committee, the lowest stamp issued will be 1 cent. In all cases where a fraction of a cent is involved the government will receive the benefit of the doubt. This means that a 2-cent stamp must be purchased with a 15-cent ticket, and a 3-center with a 25-cent ticket.

"The senate committee on finance entirely exempted motion pictures from taxation in any form on the ground that they were of educational value. There was opposition to this exemption in the lower branch of congress, and it soon became evident that such an exemption would not pass the house."

AT THE ALHAMBRA.

Julian Eltinge, a female impersonator, made a hit with a large Ogden audience at the Alhambra last evening. The complete mastery of bearing, of action, of every little detail that goes to make for cultured and refined lady, is to be seen in Mr. Eltinge's work. Yet, in parts where he takes the role of the man, he is shown as not the least bit effeminate. In fact, he is a most manly man, if the expression may be allowed.

"Fatty" Arachio is there, too. In "Oh, Doctor," he has found plenty of places for some original comedy situations and it is unnecessary to state that he has taken fullest advantage of them. These two pictures, with a Hearst-Pathe News Pictorial make a most excellent program at the Hudson avenue playhouse. It will run this afternoon and evening.

SECRETARY LANE IS INTERVIEWED IN OGDEN

For a brief time yesterday afternoon, Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane, was an Ogden visitor. He was on his way to Salt Lake City from Denver. He delivered an address in Salt Lake last evening, after reviewing the troops in parade.

The secretary arrived in Ogden at 5:45, on No. 9, the fast mail. He traveled in the private car of Vice President McFarland, in charge of traffic for the Southern Pacific.

The party was met at the Union depot by a committee of representative business men of the city, who extended a formal invitation to the secretary to speak at the tabernacle this afternoon. In the party were Mayor A. R. Heywood; W. H. Wattis, president of the Weber club; Ralph E. Bristol; Chapin A. Day; Postmaster W. W. Browning; W. C. Wright; Frank M. Driggs, superintendent of the state school for the deaf and blind; Frank Francis; J. U. Eldredge, Jr.; F. E. Scott and W. G. Wilson of the Southern Pacific; Paul Beemer of the Union Pacific and newspaper representatives.

Secretary Lane greeted the party most cordially and thanked them for the invitation extended to speak here. This invitation was given by W. H. Wattis and Mayor Heywood. Both told Lane that Ogden was most desirous of having him speak here in the interests of the second liberty loan. Secretary Lane replied that he was at the disposal of the committee and would be here at any hour named.

He paid a tribute to the state of Utah when he said that in his work in the department of the interior he had very few complaints from this state.

Secretary Lane was formerly a newspaper man. He then took up the practice of law and was most successful in that branch. He stated that in 1887 to 1889, he was correspondent for the Ogden Standard in New York City. At one time he was proprietor of a paper in Tacoma, Wash. At another time, he was connected with a paper in California, in fact started his career in the newspaper business.

He was asked what he had to say with regard to the war.

"We are hard at it and doing well," the principal time of the short stay here was consumed in informal discussion of the plans of the meeting held here today and in a sort of "get acquainted" meeting in which the secretary was the center of the group.

Pains and Aches Caused by Kidneys

Many women attribute ailments and suffering to a dozen disease peculiar to their sex, when often the pain and misery is caused by weak kidneys. Household work, office work or factory work may start the trouble, and dizzy spells, puffiness under eyes, sore muscles, stiff joints, discolored or scanty urine, sleep disturbing bladder ailments, rheumatism or diabetes may result. When the kidneys are strong and healthy they filter out from the blood the poisonous waste matter. When they are sluggish or overworked they need a medicine to clean them out and invigorate action. Foley Kidney Pills are prepared expressly for the purpose of dissolving all poisonous substances and uric acid that lodge in the joints and muscles and to cleanse and strengthen stopped-up, inactive kidneys. Thousands of men and women in all parts of the country testify to the wonderfully satisfactory results they have had from taking Foley Kidney Pills.

His jovial personality impressed one with his fine sense of humor. He made the prediction that the second liberty loan would be over-subscribed as much so as was the first and that the campaign would be a short one. The people are waking to the need of the money to carry on the war, he said.

While in this part of the country, he said he wanted to see the strawberry valley irrigation project, in the southern part of the state.

PRINTERS APPEALED TO IN BEHALF OF BIG LOAN

That the printers of the United States will be liberal subscribers to the second liberty loan is predicted by the response made by them to the first one. Word has been received by C. O. Riser, secretary of local union 236, that throughout the United States their subscription to the first loan was $1,215,000. It is thought this will be greatly exceeded in the present loan. Locally, the men bought bonds to the first loan individually, no campaign having been undertaken by the union.

Whether they will work in unison on the second loan has not been decided, but this matter will be taken under consideration at the next meeting, to be held tomorrow.

GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE TO MEET MONDAY 7:30 P. M.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Good Government league will be held in J. J. Brummitt's office, at 7:30 Monday evening, October 8. A full representation is requested as matters of considerable importance will come up for consideration.

(Signed) J. F. SNEDAKER, President.

AN ELOQUENT ADDRESS.

The chairman of the committee was addressing a meeting at a teachers' institute:

"My friends, the school work is the bulwark of civilization. I mean—ah—"

"He began to feel frightened."

"The bulwark is the school work of civ—"

"A smile could be felt."

"The workhouse is the bulwark of civ—"

"He was evidently twisted."

"The schoolbul is the housework—"

An audible snicker spread over the audience.

"The bulwark—"

"He was getting wild. So were his hearers. He mopped his perspiration, gritted his teeth and made a fresh start."

"The school house, my friend—"

A sigh of relief went up. Maybe he would get started after all.

He gazed serenely around. The light of triumphant self-confidence was enthroned upon his brow.

"Is the woolbark—"

And then is when he lost consciousness.

New Utah Theatre, Home of Popular Plays and Players, will soon reopen with a line of high class motion pictures.

FIREMEN RAISE FOOD, AND SAVE IT TOO; HERE'S ONE WHO KNOWS HOW TO CAN

Firemen of Washington raised gardens this summer on plots of ground adjacent to the fire stations. Having done "their bit" in the garden way they are canning their produce. In this picture a fireman is shown canning corn which he has taken to a Community Center Canning Demonstration for that purpose.
